This camp is limited to the first 20 campers to register per week. This number may be reduced due to government regulations. Campers will be added to the roster as registration forms come in. If your child does not make it into the first two weeks, we plan to have an overflow week so as many people as possible can attend. You will be notified if you get into the first two camps or will be waitlisted. If you have any questions please contact The Dream Center.

Triple Threat Teens-

This camp allows for the performer to bring in a song and/or poem to work on with camp directors, Camri and Camille. If your child is planning to bring a song and/or poem to perform, please see the following information.

What is the song and/or poem?

Do you need an accompanist? Yes____ No____
If no, do you have an accompaniment track? Yes____ No____

Your child will be able to sign up for private lessons after rehearsals at 8:30 on Sunday night after their first rehearsal.

Any camper who wants their solo act to be in the showcase will be included.
